Designer awnings for conservatories, glass rooms and glass canopies

markilux

The best under the sun

Enjoying feel-good temperatures

Unobstructed views into the garden in a protected environment: conservatories and covered patios offer the best of both the indoors and the outdoors. Installed either above or below the glass, they ensure a comfortable living environment and reliable protection from glare. These high-grade textile shading systems from markilux are as pleasing to the eye as they are robust. Right down the line. Award-winning. Good.

LED lighting

A large variety of lighting constellations ensures the perfect atmosphere. Go to your markilux specialist dealer to find out about all the options.

markilux infrared heater
